RULES

The FIDE Rules for rapid play events apply.

Particular note should be taken of the following rules.

- a) Mobile phones and other electronic devices should be completely switched off whilst playing.
- b) If a player makes an illegal move the board is re-set and two minutes will be added to his/her opponent's time. If a player makes two illegal moves he/she forfeits the game.
- c) Checkmate ends the game without the clock being stopped. No claims can be made after checkmate.
- d) If a player notes that the flag on the clock of his/her opponent has fallen, the player may claim a win provided his/her own flag has not fallen and he/she is able to win by legal moves. Flag-falls should not be pointed out by anyone other than the players in the game in question. If a player points out that both flags are down the game is drawn. If you are a spectator, please do not interfere by pointing out a flag fall.
- e) During the last two minutes on a player's clock, a player may claim a draw on the basis that his/her opponent cannot win by normal means, and/or that his/her opponent has been making no effort to win by normal means: If not agreed, he/she should summon the controller who may declare the game drawn or instruct that the game continues with two minutes added to the opponent's time and a clock with five second increments substituted . A player may not claim a draw after his/her flag has fallen except as stated in d).
- f) For any query requiring the controller, clocks may be stopped.
- g) There is no requirement to record moves, but a completed score sheet may be necessary to validate any claim for either a win or a draw under b) or e) above.
- h) By entering the Congress players undertake to play in all 5 rounds, players withdrawing after the first round may not be eligible to play in future congresses.
- i) Rapid play rating, where available, determines initial ranking.

Competitors are requested not to re-play or analyse in the Tournament Hall. Please reposition pieces and reset clocks once your game is finished.

Acknowledgements and receipts will only be sent if a stamped addressed envelope, is enclosed with entry, or an email address is advised.
